

The Small Times Post

Today, September, 2006

Free Unless You Got a Dolla

Local Skater and Famous Bike Rider Seen Being Friendly With Each Other

Chrissy Bear and Britney Spears Sign $$$ Record Deal

Hammond— Only months after the ‘Chrissy Bear/Paris Hilton Video Controversy,’ it seems that Tangipahoa Parish native Chris Daniels has reinvented himself as a teen pop sensation. “Most people just think I build ramps, but I’m more than that. Singing is my life.” When asked how his record deal with Kentwood pop star Britney Spears came about, Chrissy responded: “Dude, the chick kept calling me. I was like, whatever... I wasn’t even gonna do it until that punk Kevin Federline said he wanted to fight because his girl was all in my grill. That’s when I decided to join up with her. I’d do just about anything to piss off her little husband.” K-Fed was last seen hiding in a closet crying.

Gnar Gnar Doug Appointed by Department of Homeland Security to Curb Park ‘Rif Raf’ “All I ever really wanted to do was skate and tell jokes”

Inside:

Randy learns how to use telekinesis to flip board

Bankhead demonstrates the wonder of Velcro

Why does my remote have so many buttons?